THE MANCHESTER LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

DRIAN CROWTHER
Programme Director,
Alliance Manchester Business School

"Whilst studying with us, you will develop your critical thinking and be able to apply this throughout your career. Leadership is a skill set that is required across all sectors."

Programme overview

The Manchester Leadership Development Programme (MLDP) is an accredited leadership development course designed to equip talented and ambitious managers with the skills and experience to become more reflective and effective leaders.

The programme is delivered via a blended learning approach, in person over five consecutive days and through an online learning platform, allowing you time away from work to immerse yourself in your professional development.

Who should attend?

The course is open to all backgrounds and business sectors – private, public and third sector.

Typical delegates are already in a management role looking to further develop their capabilities and their career.

HOW WE SUPPORT YOU

We don't just offer support for the duration of your programme. Our whole team is here to ensure everything about the programme runs smoothly.

From the Programme Director overseeing the content for each day, to the programme management team dealing with your day to day needs, we want to ensure that you have an outstanding experience at AMBS.

Award

Upon successful completion of the core modules and work-based project, participants will be awarded a CMI Level 7 Award in Strategic Management and Leadership Practice. Alongside this, you will receive a course completion certificate from Alliance Manchester Business School, as well as a digital certificate and digital badge which can be displayed on your LinkedIn profile.

If you are successfully accepted on to the Global MBA within five years of completing your course, you will receive exemption from one elective. Your attendance on the course must be mentioned at the time of application. For further details, please do contact us.

The Executive Education Network

After the programme, you will also automatically join our Executive Education Network. Benefits of the network include: information on new programme launches, top-class speaker events and opportunities to draw on the knowledge and experience of a growing network of peers.

Manchester Professional Diploma in Leadership

You can choose to curate your own personal development curriculum by attending four of our short business courses. On completion, you will be awarded the Manchester Professional Diploma in Leadership.

Alex Lane

Independent Financial Advisor, DKFM

"This programme has given me a better understanding of how to manage individuals and how my personal skills can be put to best use within the business."

The Manchester Experience

Located in the heart of the University of Manchester campus on the Oxford Road corridor, you will be ideally placed at our Executive Education Centre.

If you are looking to stay in Manchester while you are on the course, there is a hotel adjacent to the centre. All delegates can use our direct booking link to access the Alliance MBS room rate.
